Southern Men's Shed Discussion Forum (Message Board)

Hi Shedders and Supporters,

On our Southern Men's Shed Network Website (www.smsn.org.uk) we now have a Discussion Forum.

But what is a Discussion Forum?

Well you may have already used one without knowing it.

E.g. Streetlife, Support Sites, Online Clubs or Interest Groups etc.

Basically they are parts of websites which allow you to raise Topics (or Questions) which others can then read and offer comments (or Answers). You can also look at other peoples Topics and add your own comments.

Each Topic and its associated comments is called a Discussion Thread.
